

Laboratorio – 01: ¿Cómo empezar con Microsoft Intune?

Objetivo: El objetivo de este laboratorio es comenzar a trabajar con Microsoft Intune.

Microsoft ha cambiado la forma y ha movido la consola de administración de Intune de lugar, antes de Agosto del 2020, accedíamos a ella a través del portal de Azure agregando Intune como otro servicio más en nuestra tenant en el propio Portal de administración de Azure como al menú horizontal de favoritos del mismo.

Desde Julio de 2020. Intune se ha integrado en la consola de Microsoft Endpoint Manager Admin Center.

URL informativa de la Tech Community de Microsoft relativa a este cambio:

The screenshot shows a web browser displaying a Microsoft Tech Community article. The browser's address bar shows the URL: techcommunity.microsoft.com/t5/intune-customer-success/reminder-move-to-the-microsoft-endpoint-manager-admin-center-for/ba-p/1509565. The page header includes the Microsoft logo and a 'Sign In' link. The article is from the 'Intune Support Team Microsoft' and is dated '07-08-2020 10:06 AM'. The main heading of the article is 'Reminder – Move to the Microsoft Endpoint Manager admin center for all your Intune administration'. The body text asks if the reader has logged into <https://portal.azure.com> and seen a banner. A blue information box states: 'On August 1, 2020, the current Intune Azure Portal experience will be retired. We're moving to our new home in the Microsoft Endpoint Manager admin center. →'. The text continues: 'Or, did you read the two Message Center posts – MC208118 (back in March, 2020) and then MC211982 (May, 2020)? If so, you're fully aware that Intune administration is now at <https://endpoint.microsoft.com>.' It then states: 'If you haven't read the messages or seen the banner, then just be aware that on August 1, 2020, future development of Intune will be focused at <https://endpoint.microsoft.com>. Here's answers to frequently asked questions:'. A numbered list follows: 1. There are no changes to graph. 2. You'll still have an entry point in <https://portal.azure.com> which will redirect you to Microsoft Endpoint Manager admin center. 3. Where possible, we'll put redirects on popular Intune blades at <https://portal.azure.com> to remind you of this change. 4. New features will be shipped in <https://endpoint.microsoft.com>. The article concludes with: 'Docs have been updated. Let us know if you have any additional questions on this updated admin experience, and see you at <https://endpoint.microsoft.com>!'.
